The apparatus provides a conferencing mechanism for people located at numerous locations to gather together through a medium, so that simultaneous interactive communications are performed during meeting. The apparatus allows people to easily and intuitively share information in a way which is natural, thus presenting a minimal learning curve for making a transition from an individual browsing environment to a collaborative working environment. The shared web browser automatically converts the information and presentation into a web format for display."	US-PGPUB; USPAT	OR	ON	2010/01/31 14:32
